

WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

WHEELING (W.Va.)
INTELLIGENCER

Circ.: m. 22,955

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Notes

India Denies Confidential Note From Ike

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian officials said Tuesday they know nothing about any confidential message from President Eisenhower to Prime Minister Nehru at the height of India's border dispute with Red China last month.

They commented on a report that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had boasted that his agents had intercepted such a message. Hollywood film executive Victor M. Carter said Khrushchev had made the claim while in Los Angeles on his U. S. tour.

In a recent interview on a New York television program, Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations and Khrushchev's traveling companion in the United States, declined comment on Khrushchev's alleged claim.

In Washington, the Central Intelligence Agency confirmed that Carter had made the report on Khrushchev's comments but would not go into detail.

However, a spokesman said the agency's director, Allen W. Dulles, had "laughingly reserved comment," and quoted Dulles as saying: "Mr. Khrushchev is quite a propagandist, isn't he."

Earlier, Indian officials denied that Nehru's sister, Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, had carried the alleged message from Eisenhower to Nehru. Mrs. Pandit, who is Indian high commissioner to Britain, met Eisenhower in London just before she made a brief visit to India shortly after the border dispute had become publicly known in late August.

WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

WHEELING (W.Va.)
INTELLIGENCER

Circ.: m. 22,955

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date:

India Denies Confidential Note From Ike

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian officials said Tuesday they know nothing about any confidential message from President Eisenhower to Prime Minister Nehru at the height of India's border dispute with Red China last month.

They commented on a report that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had boasted that his agents had intercepted such a message. Hollywood film executive Victor M. Carter said Khrushchev had made the claim while in Los Angeles on his U. S. tour.

In a recent interview on a New York television program, Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations and Khrushchev's traveling companion in the United States, declined comment on Khrushchev's alleged claim.

In Washington, the Central Intelligence Agency confirmed that Carter had made the report on Khrushchev's comments but would not go into detail.

However, a spokesman said the agency's director, Allen W. Dulles, had "laughingly reserved comment," and quoted Dulles as saying: "Mr. Khrushchev is quite a propagandist, isn't he."

Earlier, Indian officials denied that Nehru's sister, Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, had carried the alleged message from Eisenhower to Nehru. Mrs. Pandit, who is Indian high commissioner to Britain, met Eisenhower in London just before she made a brief visit to India shortly after the border dispute had become publicly known in late August.